VOL. 1

BALTIMORE—MARCH 24th, 1815.

NO. 27

Cohen's Lottery & Exchange Office. "HOC SIGNO FORTUNA."

From several of our Agents we are informed of the irregularity and sometimes failure in the arrival of The Register which is regularly put up and deposited in the post-office in this City, & where we have not the least doubt of its being as regularly forwarded.—We are satisfied that there is no cause for complaint of our post-master whose unremitted attention to the duties of his office is sufficiently known to warrant the assertion that the irregularity complained of, is beyond the controul of his department.

Very late from Bordeaux—The schr. Vixen, of Philadelphia has arrived at this port in 39 days from Bordeaux, with Brandy and dry goods. By this arrival we learn that the Congress of Vienna was still in session—affairs unsettled. Lord Castlereagh had returned to England, and lord Wellington had repaired there from Paris, to fill his place. Great discontent still prevailed throughout France. Spain was all in commotion; the English ambassador, Wellesly, had quitted Madrid and war was expected.

Fort Boyer, commanded by lieut. col. Lawrence, at Mobile point capitulated to the British on the 11th of Feb. The garrison consisted of 360 men and were attacked by the remnant of the expedition, that went against New Orleans, under Gen. Lambert.

The packet boat Traveller, on her passage from Trenton to Philadelphia, was upset by a flaw of wind. There were 17 persons on board...12 were in the cabin, of whom 6 were taken out alive, the other 6 drowned. Among the number of unfortunates is serjeant Lovett, of this city.

Capture of the Syren.

The following is from the London Observer, Nov. 20. "The London Gazette of the 19th, contains an account of the capture, after a chase of 11 hours, by the British 74, Medway, Capt. Brine, on the 12th July, of the United States brig of war Syren, of 16 guns and 137 men—During the chase the prize threw overboard all her guns, boats, anchors, cables and spare spars."

Letter bags at the Merchants Coffee House.

Ships London Packet, for Amsterdam Baltimore, do; Severn, Bremen; brigs Adrian, Bordeaux; Adherbal, N. Orleans.
